DPNR PRESENTS "TALKING BOOKS BOOK CLUB WITH NINA GARCIA"

Commissioner Jean-Pierre L. Oriol of the Department of Planning and Natural Resources is pleased to announce the next session of the Talking Books Book Club, taking place on Wednesday, November 25th at 10:00 a.m. at the Regional Library for the Blind and Physically Challenged, now located within the Florence Williams Library in Christiansted. The Talking Books Book Club is open to all who wish to participate.

This month's featured titles are Outlaw: A Dresden files novella by Jim Butcher. Harry Dresden investigates a case involving a desperate man caught in supernatural trouble, forcing him to confront questions of justice, redemption, and the consequences of past choices.

And Under the Oak Tree: Volume II the novel by Suji Kim. Maxi grows in confidence as a mage while working to strengthen her relationship with Riftan amid war, political intrigue, and personal challenges.

"We're excited to welcome our readers to explore our digital collection through Hoopla," said Division Libraries, Archives, and Museums Director Amy DeSorbo. "To make it easier for everyone to join in, we've added six new eBook copies and six audiobook versions of this month's selection. Dive into a great story and connect with fellow readers in our vibrant community.
