

This is not required as the property is owned by a trust, not a corporation